

Intersection of Divorce, Real Estate & Mortgage Financing

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES

Build Credibility: Make it easier for your clients! Become an expert on the implications and challenges of divorce as it relates to real estate by demonstrating a deeper knowledge level when working with divorcing clients.

Differentiate Yourself in the Field: Stand out in the industry and communicate your expertise and credibility to your clients and referral partners. Learn to be ahead of the referral by being involved during the divorce process and not a post decree referral.

This program is designed to provide the candidate with an understanding of the implications and challenges of working with divorcing clients when selling the marital home and cover the elements of the various puzzle pieces in a divorce situation and provide a better understanding of successfully working with divorcing clients.
