

A Happy Tail: Pets and the Homebuying Process

It's no secret that we love our pets, but what may come as a surprise is how large a role they can play in the homebuying process – and our lives.

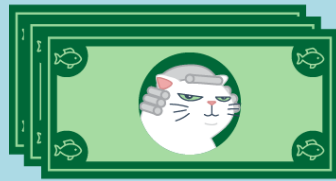

Pets Are More Important Now Than Ever Before

Approximately 70% of U.S. Households have pets.

That's the highest percentage over the past 30 years.

We're also spending more than ever on our furry friends.

Americans spend an average of $1,163 a year on their pets.

Nearly Half of Americans Would Move for Their Pets

43% of households say they would change their living situation for their pets.

68% say community animal policies influenced where they chose to live.
